March 19, 2024 Exton, PA – Melior Discovery, Inc. (Melior) announced today that it has been selected as the CRO of the Year by Life Sciences Review magazine. The year-end edition of the magazine is dedicated to coverage of 10 preeminent CROs, among which Melior was selected as CRO of the Year. The recognition focused on Melior's unique offering within the pre-clinical pharmacology space with its phenotypic screening platform theraTRACE®, as well as its related offerings in the oncology space with immuno-theraTRACE®, and its analgesic-focused platform opioidTRACE®. These platform offerings are in addition to Melior's broad array of animal models of human disease.

"I am tremendously honored by this acknowledgment from the editors of Life Sciences Review" said Andrew Reaume, Melior's President and CEO. "This honor, together with the distinction that we received last year from Pharma Tech Outlook as a Top 20 CRO, are a testimony to the dynamic strides that Melior is making towards becoming one of the most important players in providing pre-clinical in vivo proof-of-concept for pharma and biopharmaceutical companies of all sorts."
